

“Companioning the Dying”

Facilitator: Judith Stewart
Spiritual Support person
Hospice Southland

A day of learning and sharing for those who spiritually share the journey with people who are nearing the end of their lives.

Of relevance for chaplains, ministers, priests, pastoral care workers, health professionals and anyone who is interested in spiritual companioning.

Monday 15th February 2021

9.30am – 4.00pm

Meeting Room 2
Hospice Southland

Presence and Connectedness
Meaning and Hope
The Tenets of Companioning
Suffering and Bearing Witness
Metaphor and Imagery near end of life
Surrender Acceptance

Cost: $60.00

Please email judith.stewart@hospicesouthland.org.nz for any further information.

Registration forms can be downloaded on our website www.hospicesouthland.co.nz and emailed to education@hospicesouthland.org.nz